LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE U.S.S. Menocacy is at Yokohama and the Palat at Nagasaki.The census of Hongkong and its dependencies will be taken on the 30th inst.2102 horses started for races in England last year, and the value of the stakes competed for has been computed at £446,768.It is notified that Mr. Robert Barclay Joyce will act as Siamese Consul in this colony during the absence of Mr. Catchick Paul Chater.THE returns of the number of visitors to the City Hall Museum for the week ending April 5th, are: —Europeans 153, and Chinese 1,158; total 1,311.THE Agents (Messrs. Adamson, Bell & Co.) inform us that the steamship Albany, from Liverpool, left Singapore for Hongkong this afternoon.In addition to the baby elephants, a tame leopard and several hundred birds and other animals were presented to the Cresswell during his stay in Bangkok.THE Crown Solicitor, Mr. A. B. Johnson, has gone home on four months' vacation leave.
During his absence Mr. A. P. Stokes will act as locum tenens.We are informed by the agent of the Messageries Maritimes that the Company's steamer Yangtze, with the next French mail, left Saigon yesterday at 10 p.m. for this port.THE Messageries Maritimes Company's splendid new 7000-ton steamer, Polynésie, recently ran from Noumea to Sydney in 6 1/2 hours, or at the rate of 17 1/2 knots an hour right through.Now that naturalists have accurately estimated the average life of a frog to be fifteen years, there are only two other animals whose longevity is unknown—the lawyer and the land-shark.THE Celestial who snatched a bundle of clothing from a woman on board the steamer Palat on the 1st inst., was sentenced to a month's imprisonment by the magistrate this morning.AN Emergency Convocation of Cathay Chapter, No. 1165, will be held in Freemasons' Hall, Zetland Street, this evening, at 8.30 for 9 o'clock privately. Visiting companions are cordially invited.A PROPER diet for a human being should contain one part of nitrogenous matter to about four of non-nitrogenous substances, such as fat, starch, and sugar. Whisky is an unknown quantity in the medical mind.THE Austrian flag, says our Shanghai morning contemporary, has made its reappearance in these waters, being now carried on board the Changong, which has passed under the control of Messrs. H. Mandl & Co.Mr. Wise very properly dropped down on a Chinese named Chan A. I. this morning for having cruelly ill-used a pony. The case was a brutal one, and the magistrate marked his sense of it by fining the defendant $25.THE recently deceased opera-singer Emma Abbott who left £30,000 behind her, commenced by singing in a church choir; and if we mistake not it was through singing in a similar capacity that Miss Grace Plaisant first came to the stage. They all do it.FOR attempting to break out of his cell at the Shanghai Police Station and for having damaged the door thereof in consequence, a Celestial was ordered by Mr. Wise to contribute two shillings of silver to the Government exchequer this morning.THE appointment of Mr. C. W. Duggan, for many years head clerk in the Police Department, to be Acting Chief Clerk in the Colonial Secretary's office, is gazetted. Mr. Duggan is an experienced and competent officer, who ought to have been promoted years ago.THE Mlin Dramatic Company appear again this evening in the "Merchant of Venice." The cast is an exceedingly strong one and we would advise all those who have not yet seen the Company in this, one of the greatest of Shakespeare's plays, not to miss the opportunity.We would draw the attention of our readers to a letter from Mr. Geo. C. Miln, the well known Shakespearean actor, which appears in another column. The letter, of course, speaks for itself and we need not say that the example of pure and prompt character which Mr. Miln has set the community, will be followed and supported as it deserves to be.THE competition for the Faki Cup, given under the auspices of the Hongkong Rifle Association, took place on Saturday last, and resulted in a win for Mr. Ed. Robinson for the second time with a score of 45 points. Dr. Yeo, R.N., being second with a score of 38. Mr. Robinson has to win the cup once more before it becomes his absolute property. We wish him all success.A MELBOURNE comic paper wears this motto on its front page which by the by is one that would and should, most fittingly adorn the frontispiece of the comatose Snail: "There is something in the distresses of our best friends that is not altogether displeasing of us." Consequently, we presume, a fellow naturally loving his best friend to harrow himself up by buying that paper, and this innate malignity keeps the circulation going.THE late eminent scientist, Mr. De la Rue, constructed a magnificent electric battery of many thousand cells with the object of trying to estimate the actual force exerted by a flash of lightning. From the experiments which he carried out, and from others supplemented since his death, it has been calculated that the electromotive force requisite to produce a flash of lightning one mile in length is 1,775,550,000 volts.
To artificially produce this enormous power, a battery of fifteen hundred million active cells would be required. There's nothing mean about lightning.A REGULAR meeting of St. John Lodge, No. 618, S.C., will be held in Freemasons' Hall, Zetland Street, on Monday, the 13th instant, at 8.30 for 9 p.m., precisely. Visiting brethren are cordially invited.In the Government Gazette of Saturday last, the "Ordinance to amend and consolidate the law relating to the protection of Women and Girls" (No. 11 of 1890), is proclaimed by the Governor to come into force from to-day.Mr. E. W. Maitland, Hon. Treasurer of the Allice Memorial Hospital, acknowledges with thanks the following donations to the funds of the hospital:—Right Rev. Bishop Burdon, D.D., $50, George Murray Bain, Esq., $20.BRITISH paper manufacturers are supposed to pay to the home Government rather more than £100,000 annually for the waste paper of the public offices. Sir John Lubbock's gubernatorial despatches are credited with having brought the sales up to their present high figure.THE petition of British residents in Shanghai adopted at the meeting held on the 10th March, to protest against the change in the system of the Judicial Establishment and Consular Service in China, has been forwarded to Peking. It was signed by 526 Shanghai residents.CHARLES KERRY, a fireman, belonging to H.M.S. Flindra, was charged before Mr. Wise this morning with assaulting and wounding Tam Wing Kwai, on the 5th inst. The complainant was unable to appear, being under treatment at the Government Civil Hospital, and the defendant was remanded.THE monthly smoking concert of the Garrison Staff mess was held on Monday evening at their room, 100, Queen's Road East. Mr. J.
Meridith, G.S.M., occupied the chair, and besides the usual songs, readings and recitations, a number of sleight-of-hand tricks were performed in a very clever manner. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all present.A SMALL quantity of Dr. Koch's lymph having been received in Japan, experiments are now being made with it by Dr. Nakamura. According to the Yokohama Specimen, the announcement of the discovery has caused much excitement in the country districts, and constant applications for lymph, and for information as to the results of the experiments, are received in Tokyo.Who is to temporarily succeed Mr. C. P. Chater as M. L. C. for the Justices of the Peace? Considering the strained relations at present existing between the Government and the public, and the unpopularity of the Government, there is one backslider among the unofficials unless Mr. J.
Meridith, G.S.M., who has been a great advocate of the Government, and who has been a great day's delay.THE Bangkok Times says that the Cresswell and Prince George each took away a baby elephant, which the King of Siam presented as souvenirs of their visit. There are several "white elephants" particularly prominent in Hongkong just now that are said to be "souvenirs" of the visit of the Cresswell and Prince George to the colony and the community. They never would be missed.BOMBARDIER ASHDOWN, R.A., met with a fatal accident on Saturday evening at his quarters in Queen's Road. About 10.30 p.m. he was found in the roadway having by some unaccountable means fallen from the verandah, a distance of 25 ft., fracturing his skull so severely that he died on an early bed on Sunday morning. The deceased, who had only been in the Colony some six weeks, was about 32 years of age, and leaves a widow and five children.SEVENTEEN thousand gallons of spirits among 100,000 persons is not an illiberal allowance, especially when the spirit is ether. That, according to the official report to the Government of Ireland, is the quantity of other annual consumed in Derry, Tyrone, Armagh, Monaghan, and Fermanagh. It is bad enough to get drunk in what may be considered a legitimate way; but other drinking—especially when, as in Ireland, the spirit is of the vilest impurity—is much more injurious, partly because it is more secret, than the consumption of spirits that is sold in public houses. But "shure now" the Hibernians have ever had a weakness for illicit drinking.We regret to hear that Mr. Justice Clarke, owing to ill health, will proceed to England on leave of absence by next Friday. If Mr. Fielding Clarke has not quite confirmed the most favorable impressions he made on his first arrival here, he can at least claim to be one of the ablest lawyers and most accomplished men who have ever sat on the Hongkong bench—and in our opinion he is an even more efficient advocate than he is a good all-round judge. It appears that his Honour has been engaged in looking into the effects of a railway accident sustained some years ago, and that total abstinence from work and a trip home are considered absolute necessities. On all that, during Mr. Clarke's absence, Mr. E. J. Adcock will act as Puisne Judge. Mr. Bruce Shepherd again taking over the duties of Registrar of the Supreme Court.THE orders of the day at the meeting of the Legislative Council to be held on Friday, the 10th instant, at 3 p.m., are as follows:—(1) Financial Minutes.
(2) Hon. T. H. Whitehead will ask the following questions:—(a) What was the total expenditure of the Government under the head of salaries for the years 1887, 1888, 1889, and 1890, and what is the estimated total expenditure for the current year under the same heading, on the basis of the increased and lowered estimates by the Public Works Committee? (b) What was the total expenditure of the Public Works Department in the years 1887, 1888, 1889, and 1890, for salaries and wages, and what is the estimated expenditure under the same heading for the current year on the Public Works Department and Water and Drainage Department combined? (c) How is it that there has been no meeting of the Public Works Committee appointed in October last? (d) Does the Government intend to give effect to the recommendation of the Public Works Committee in their addendum of the 26th December, 1890, to submit to the Public Works Committee full details and estimates of all Public Works?
(e) What arrangements have been made for examining and checking accounts sent to the Treasury for payment, and have any difficulties arisen, since the new system of audit was introduced, in checking and examining accounts for payment? (f) What are the duties of the Treasury Department and the Treasurer, under the new system of that department?(3) Hon. T. H. Whitehead will move the following resolution:—"That in consequence of the enhanced Military Contribution still demanded by the Imperial Government, this Colony is not in a position to pay the increased Salaries recently recommended by the Un-official Members and that the Secretary of State be requested by telegram to withhold his sanction."
(4) First reading of a Bill entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the making of a Table of Fees to be taken in connection with the Grant of Letters Patent in this Colony." (5) Committee on the Bill entitled "The Gambling Ordinance, 1891."A CHINAMAN named Wong Cheung who was arrested by Inspector Corcoran on the 23rd ult. at Shaohwan, on suspicion of having been connected with the Namoa piracy, was remanded for another week for additional evidence to effect identification. Another man named Chanp Sing was arrested yesterday on a similar charge, and was also remanded for a week.A TELEGRAM in the Yokohama Specimen dated Nagasaki, March 28th says:—"The Court of Enquiry into the loss of the steamer Queen Elizabeth, which occurred off the Island of Iki-shima, when that vessel was on a voyage from Karatsu to Manila, was concluded here to-day. Captain Wilson was held to be in fault, and his certificate was suspended for six months."JOHN L. Sullivan is credited with earning £500 a week as an actor at the present time, but if he gets a fifth of the sum, he earns his money more reputably and with less personal risk than at his old game. It's queer though that a man should be able to command high salaries in one profession simply because he has been successful in another. Women achieve similar results through the divorce and breach-of-promise courts. John L. makes a fine modern villain.AT PERTH W.A., an amateur operatic company recently produced "Iolanthe." The chief feature of the performance was the impressive dignity of the Fairy Queen, which character was taken by a lady who stood six feet without high heels.
Governor (Billy) Robinson was present and looked unutterable things at the warblers who strove to interpret Sullivan, each in his or her own little way. Several of the newly appointed members of the Legislative Council were also in attendance but were grievously disappointed. There was too much of the fairy draperies and too little of the fairies to be seen.IT is now stated, and apparently with some authority, that Governor des Vaux will not go home next month, as reported a short time since.
His Excellency, it seems, is very anxious to put in his full term of service in Hongkong, and he has been for some months in Japan will sufficiently recruit his health to enable him to do so.
We trust sincerely that his anticipations may be fully realized, and further, that the bracing air of the "Land of the Rising Sun" will succeed in driving from his brain the red-tape nonsense and official obliquity of vision which have transformed a strong-minded and well-meaning man into a Colonial office automaton.If the Shanghai native papers are to be believed, the Chinese reception at Hankow is to be quite a grand business, and an event in the history of China. All the Chinese officials, high and low, along the route he is to travel, are to journey from their yamens and proceed to welcome him as his vessel steams up the Yangtze, headed by the Viceroy of the Hu Kwang, Chang Chih-tung. The entire Foreign community at Hankow are joining with the Russians there to make the demonstration as imposing as possible, and an immense quantity of fireworks have been ordered from Canton for the occasion. At Woo-sung a salute of twenty-one guns will be fired.OUR Bangkok contemporary, the Times, says the Cresswell, before his departure from Siam, presented each of the chief police inspectors with a valuable diamond ring, and was most lavish with presents in many other directions. At Bangkok, for example, he sent his sidekick camp into the guard-room to distribute two hundred and fifty bahts among the sentries. It is rather amusing to read that, in consequence of the visit of the Russian squadron to Bangkok everything in the way of food and drink at a premium, champagne going up to $5 a bottle. The Government bought up whole stocks of provisions, such as gates de fete gran, sausages, candies, etc., and large orders had to be wired to Singapore and Hongkong for fresh supplies.

"ROB ROY" AT THE CITY HALL.

One of the largest audiences of the season assembled in the Theatre Royal on Saturday evening to witness the production of the evergreen Rob Roy by the Miln's Company. The President and members of the St. Andrew's Society were present in full force, and the lower portion of the house was crisscrossed with the swords of the "Land o' cakes." The play has always been a decided favorite, especially with Scotsmen, and as it is invariably the case when a correct representation is given, its stirring situations, patriotic songs and picturesque dressing, awakened the keenest enthusiasm of the audience.The performance did not rank as high from a histrionic standpoint, as some others of this popular company, but when due allowance is made for the great difficulty any English company must experience in presenting a play so essentially Scottish, the result was laudable in the highest degree. Mr. Miln as Rob Roy, did not appear to be thoroughly at ease in the part, though his appearance as the celebrated Highland Chief, and his spirited delivery of the passionate words which are put in his mouth by the author, left little room for criticism. He was at his best in the famous struggle at the end of the second act, which was excellently managed, and brought down the curtain amid a storm of applause. Miss Kate Douglas as Helen Macgregor, scored a decided hit. She fitted to the eye the picture of the passionate, brave and fiery, but loving wife of the robber chieftain, and her splendid delivery of the lines, accompanied by unflinching grace of action, and force of gesture, marked her as an actress of the very highest attainments, and showed her to be a great advantage to the company. Her aria has yet essayed in this city. After so accomplished a performance as that of Helen Macgregor we shall look eagerly for her impersonation of Lady Macbeth. Mr. Joe Stark gave a commendable performance of the Battle, which was however marred by numerous mis-pronunciations, and by a tedious delivery of some of the longer speeches. On the whole, however, Mr. Stark deserves considerable praise for a very sincere attempt to master a difficult character. Mr. Wilton Eyre, as Francis Osboldistone, was altogether satisfactory; his singing of "My Love is like a red, red rose" and of "Annie Laurie," and his spirited action throughout the piece did much toward the success of the performance. The same is true of Mr. J. H. Nunn as Rashleigh Osboldistone, who acted a thankless part in a painstaking and actor-like manner. Miss Bowman as Mattie Diana Vernon was as beautiful as ever, and acted her part with grace, elegance and earnestness.
Mr. Hill would be very much better if he knew something about the lines he is supposed to speak; his lapses in this direction being altogether inexcusable, and marred the impression which he might otherwise have made. Mr.
Montgomery as Captain Thornton was dignified and correct, and Mr. Money played his small part with a moderate amount of success. The Highland flings that were danced and the performance of the piper, which came off in the course of the evening, were very much enjoyed and met with a hearty reception.

THE RUSSIAN INVASION.

Last Saturday evening the Russian Consulate (Messrs. Melchers & Co.'s) on Piers Central was illuminated in honor of theimperial visitor, the front of the building being covered with Chinese lanterns arranged to represent the Russian ensign—a St. Andrew's cross on a white ground. There was also a display of fireworks during the evening, which caused a few serious watchmen to rush to the alarm bell and ring up the Fire Brigade, owing to his mistaking a Roman candle and some squibs for the roof of a house on fire.At about 9 o'clock yesterday morning the Tsarvitch, accompanied by Prince George of Greece and suite, left for Canton in the Chin Merchants' steamer Kiangkwan, Capt. Knights which had been placed at his disposal by Viceroy Li Hoo-chang, whose guest he is. The visit to Canton will conclude on Wednesday morning, when he will return to the Panama Express, arriving about a o'clock in the afternoon.
By noon on Thursday we shall have seen the last of the imperial party much to our relief, for ever since their arrival, what with the roar of cannon, the din of a discordant brass band, which is carried on the imperial "yacht," and the ringing up of the fire-brigade for no earthly reason whatever, it has been difficult to get through with work which, but for the sale of half a dozen extra copies of the Hongkong Telegraph to the Grand Duke and his hoping-to-be-royal brother, would have been absolutely prohibitive.The distinguished travellers will look in at Fookchow next Saturday en route to Hankow—a great stronghold of Russian tea merchants and traders who are going to "support" the new subsidized line of Russian steamers, which are to trade between Odessa and Vladivostok via Ceylon, Calcutta, Singapore, Hongkong, Shanghai and Nagasaki, and of which the Levant Herald lately furnished the world with some inspired particulars. By the way, we may say added that our "Red" ever has friends in Hankow, and if rumour be correct for once, going to be favoured with a lecture on "My impressions of a jog around the eastern portion of the British empire" by the Tsarvitch, who will read it himself, with his own imperial eyes and his own imperial voice! And then after the lecture, the Grand "Dook" is expected to take round the "at, so as to give all patriotic Muscovites an opportunity of contributing handsomely to the Dobrovolnoe Flot and thereby get, in exchange, a card bearing the Russian word spasibo (meaning "thanks") written in the Tsarvitch's own handwriting with a million pencil. It's a pity the imperial Glos-sotter couldn't be induced to give a few of his "impressions" whilst here, but after all is said and done, he stepped ashore here, gazed on the common herd of ordinary mortals, personally conversed with our esteemed Governor and, it is whispered, even winked at the people's favourite—the Hon. N. G. Mitchell-Innes.
What more could we expect?

CORRESPONDENCE.

(We do not necessarily endorse the opinions expressed by Correspondents in this column.)

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH."

SIR—There has been called to my attention this morning a most pathetic case of accidental death. Bombardier Ashdown of the Royal Artillery fell from a window on Saturday afternoon, and after lingering a few hours, died.
He leaves a widow and five children who, for some reason unknown to me, will receive no pension. Sir, it is the privilege of the strong to help the weak. It should be their pleasure to take for granted some organized movement will be set about to assist his most distressed family, but in the meantime may I—a stranger here—venture to proffer such poor assistance as lies within my power. I have already offered to lecture on Sunday evening next, for the Alice Memorial Hospital, and now with the glad consent of those who have charge of that institution, I propose that the proceeds of the lecture be equally divided between the family of the dead soldier and the hospital I have mentioned.I am sure there can be no expense connected with the lecture. The proprietors of the City Hall will be only too glad to grant its use for such a purpose; Mr. Kelly & Walsh have freely volunteered to do the necessary printing, and the press of Hongkong, without doubt, will do its utmost to promote so worthy an enterprise.
For my own part I never so heartily wish I were rich as when I meet the sorrowing poor; and I shall count myself very much honored in contributing my services to this most distressing case.
I need not say that I shall deliver the lecture "The Church and the Stage as Friendly Foes," and I trust it may prove not altogether tedious.
I propose that a charge of $1 for reserved seats be made and 50 cents for the second seats. At the same time if any one desires to pay more for a seat, Mr. Kelly & Walsh will be only too glad to receive any additional donation.
Let us do something good to help the fatherless and the widow, and to strengthen the hands of those who are carrying forward the good work of the Alice Memorial.With respect, GEO. C. MILN.
